Football Game

An exceptionally interesting game of football was played on the grounds of the Holy Rosary School Tuesday afternoon between Emmett Robey's Satellites and Monroe Jett's Invincibles. It was indeed a magnificent contest from every standpoint and particularly noticeable was the splendid spirit that characterized the playing to the finish. It would be difficult to single out the particular departments of the game in which the players excelled, though in passing it might be said that wonderful execution was done by the back field for each side on the defensive. Emmett Robey, Russel Mudd and Paul VanMarter did the stellar work for the Satellites and Monroe Jett, George Kidd, Royal Young and Russel Vest shone out brilliantly for the Invincibles. Russel Yowell's bud-nipping tackles on the line were also much in evidence. The defensive work of Emmett Robey, Russel Mudd and Paul VanMarter, was superb and it was largely due to their good judgment and dash that prospective long runs for the Invincibles were cut short.

The Invincibles scored early in the game and the feat would soon after have been duplicated by the Satellites when Emmett Robey aimed the ball accurately in a long forward pass but it was badly fumbled in a clear field. E. Lanham did excellent work as center. Carl Underhill took good care of his place as guard, John Thomas, Lambert Kendrick, Joe Begley and Harold Boreman and A. Pierceall played a plucky game and Ernest VanMarter as quarter delivered the ball well.

Shortly before the call of full time Emmett Robey executed a perfect forward pass to Ernest VanMarter behind the Invincibles goal line and thus tied the score at 6. Vick Drescher splendidly refereed the game and was rigidly impartial. The line up was as follows:

Invincibles	Satellites
Monroe Jett	Q. B. E. VanMarter
Ely Jett	C. E. Lanham
John Lasley	R. G. Carl Underhill
G. Powers	L. G. H. Boreman
R. Wilson	R. T. A. Pierceall
R. Yowell	I. T. L. Kendrick
C. Fitzgerald	R. E. J. Thomas
M. Turnbow	L. E. Joe Begley
George Kidd	R. H. Russel Mudd
Royal Young	L. H. P. VanMarter
Russel Vest	F. B. Emmett Robey
M. Jett Capt.	E. Robey Capt.

Former Monroe Boy Speaks.

David Proctor of Kansas City, who was born and reared in this city and is now a leading lawyer in the city where he resides, made a Republican speech here Thursday evening. Many of his old friends were there to hear him and while they did not all agree with his political views were never the less glad to have him here.

Some Potatoes

J. W. Greenhouse has received some potatoes raised by H. C. Benson of Colorado. They were remarkably nice and smooth. Mr. Benson went west last spring and this is his first crop. He has 2000 bushels. They do not bring anything like the price we are having to pay, in fact Mr. Benson writes that they are cheap out there.

Class No. 10 of the Methodist Sunday School was invited to Sheldina Thursday to visit Mrs. J. W. Cox. She taught the class for 15 years and no teacher could have been more popular. Circumstances were such that only a few could go. Those fortunate enough to be present were Mrs. J. E. Johnston and daughter, Danella, Mrs. C. S. Leake and daughter, Julia, Mrs. Hunter Anderson, Mrs. Florence Thomas, Miss Delia Smith and Miss Beulah Jackson. Mrs. W. J. Rouse the present teacher accompanied them. The only regret was that every member of the class was not there. They went on No. 43 and returned on No. 56. It was about three hours late but that only gave them a longer time to be together.

Necrosis of the Bone

Dr. Turner and Dr. Southern operated on the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Elliott Wednesday. The bone in her leg had to be treated for necrosis. About a month ago Dr. Turner drew off a quantity of pus. She does not know how the limb was injured. We trust she will soon be well again.

From Paris.

Mrs. T. G. Bassett, Mrs. R. T. Ballou and little Betty of Paris were in Monroe City Wednesday and had Miss Belle Johnson take the latter's picture. The following day Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Major and T. B. Jr., also of Paris, motored over for Miss Johnson to make a likeness of Junior. Miss Johnson understands her business and her fame as an artist extends from coast to coast. Monroe City is fortunate to have such an artist located here.

Longs to See Monroe Friends

Paul Robey writes that if any one from Monroe City is passing through St. Marys, Kansas he wishes they would stop off and see him. He is attending St. Marys College and has not left the grounds since he entered the 8th of Sept.

He says the work is hard but he likes it very much.

Tacky Party.

Class No. 6 of the Methodist Sunday School had a masquerade party Thursday evening at the home of Miss Blanche Jarman.

There were ten present, Miss Etta Bodkin, teacher, Misses Willie Mary Sherman, Evalyn and Laura Brown, Edna Swearingen, Marietta Kelly, Margaret Smith of the class and Mrs. Harry Maddox and Miss Lucile Wright as visitors. Sandwiches, pickles, fruit and candy were served. They played games and had a jolly time until a late hour.

To Oklahoma For the Winter

Mrs. Anna Ernst left Thursday for Woodward, Okla., where she will join her daughter, Miss Gladys. The latter was a High School graduate last spring. She also finished the training course and secured a school at Woodward. They accepted her certificate only until they held their examinations. Miss Gladys made good grades in these and her mother has gone out to spend the winter with her.
